

Climate Change, Health, and Equity

Creating a Sustainable Future for the Next Generation

Please join us for an intimate evening of conversation facilitated by Dr. Cindy Haq. A mother, grandmother, family physician, two time Fulbright Scholar recipient, founding director of the UW Madison Global Health Institute, and student of Zen (to name only a few of her many accomplishments), Cindy Haq has devoted her life to advocacy, education, and compassion. She served as a family physician, teacher, and champion for health equity for 40 years; including 30 in Madison, Belleville, and Milwaukee, WI. Cindy dreams of a future where community and health systems work together to achieve health for all.
